Dementia Awareness (Unit 1):
What is Dementia?

Introduction
The e-tivities in this learning unit will examine your current knowledge about dementia and your understanding of the term. It is the first learning unit in the dementia series, It is particularly useful for those with no prior knowledge of dementia, and provides core underpinning knowledge and understanding to the other dementia units.

Where does this unit fit within the dementia series?
This is the first unit and underpins all other units in the dementia series.

Purpose of Dementia (Unit 1)
The aim of this Unit is to provide you with a basic introduction to dementia. It is aimed at people with little knowledge and/or experience in this area.

By the end of this unit, you should be able to:
- Define, in your own words, what is meant by the term ‘dementia’
- Be aware of the main forms / types of dementia
- Know the common symptoms of dementia
- Use an appropriate frame of reference to consider the individual presentation of dementia
- Understand the progression of dementia

This work was produced as part of the TIGER project and funded by JISC and the HEA in 2011. For further information see: http://www.northampton.ac.uk/tiger.

This work by TIGER Project is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 3.0 Unported License. Based on a work at tiger.library.dmu.ac.uk.

The TIGER project has sought to ensure content of the materials comply with a CC BY NC SA licence. Some material links to third party sites and may use a different licence, please check before using. The TIGER project nor any of its partners endorse these sites and cannot be held responsible for their content. Any logos or trademarks in the resource are exclusive property of their owners and their appearance is not an endorsement by the TIGER project.